

THE HOMETOWN BANK OF ALEXANDER HAMILTON

Our Culture and Legacy

Alexander Hamilton is one of the legendary Founding Fathers of America who was born in Nevis in 1755, home of Hamilton Reserve Bank, the largest global bank headquartered in the Caribbean. Mr. Hamilton also founded The Bank of New York (BNY), which is the largest bank in the world with USD 50 trillion in custody assets. Hamilton Reserve Bank serves a large and rapidly expanding clientele from 150 countries in more than 120 currencies and broadly collaborates with BNY.

Alexander Hamilton arrived in New York for education in 1772 and quickly immersed himself in revolutionary politics, laying the groundwork for his rise as one of America's most influential Founding Fathers. The life story of Alexander Hamilton is featured in the acclaimed Broadway show "HAMILTON."

Alexander Hamilton established The Bank of New York in 1784, now known as BNY Mellon, marking a pivotal moment in America's financial history. BNY commenced operations on June 9, 1784, in New York City, playing a crucial role in stabilizing the post-Revolutionary War American economy. While serving as America's first Secretary of the Treasury, BNY became the first company traded on the New York Stock Exchange in 1792. Hamilton Reserve Bank will soon follow in BNY's footsteps in becoming a public company.

Today, Hamilton Reserve Bank is expanding business around the world carrying the legacy of integrity and strength exemplified by Alexander Hamilton by offering fast, safe, and private commercial banking and custodian banking services to its worldwide customers supported by the global coverage of the esteemed Bank of New York Mellon. This collaboration, built on the bedrock principles of pristine compliance, transaction efficiency, best in class financial technology, and white-glove client services has enabled Hamilton Reserve Bank to serve its clients 24/7 by leveraging BNY's excellence in execution built over 240 years.
